

2025 Community Leader Service Award

Objective:

To recognize a person who makes significant contributions to their club or organization and/or community.

Eligibility:

Any club or organization in good standing as a member of the Inter-Service Club Council of Arlington (ISCC) is eligible to nominate a service club/organization member who has not previously received this award.

Nominations:

Content should include the following:

- A cover page with the name of nominee; the year for which nominated; the name of club/organization making the nomination; and the name, title, and phone or e-mail of person preparing the nomination.
- An introduction describing the nominee's background and participation in the nominating club/organization. Participation in other organizations and/or community activities, and awards should be mentioned.
- Emphasis should be placed on services rendered by the nominee (either as an individual or as a member of a group) which have contributed to community needs, produced visible results, and/or have implications for future actions which improve or enrich life for ANY segment of the Arlington County community in the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- Essay should be 500 words or less.

Completed nominations must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 24, 2025.

Please email nominations to Jeff Englander | englanderjeffreym@gmail.com

Presentation of Award:

Annual ISCC Meeting Luncheon: Wednesday, November 19, at Noon

Washington Golf & Country Club: 3017 N. Glebe Road, Arlington, VA 22207